VISITORS.

Members of Particular Council Visit Conference of Sacred Heart.

Leading Vincentians Talk Encouragingly of Work Now Being Done.

Rev. Father Patrick Walsh Has Kind Words For His Men.

QUARTERLY MEETING ARRANGED FOR

The system of members of the Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society visiting subordinate conferences recently inaugurated was followed up last Sunday morning by a visit to the Sacred Heart conference. Among the visitors were President James T. Campbell, Vice Presidents Edward J. Bosler and Edward J. O'Brien, William T. Meehan, of St. Mary Magdalen's, Thomas Sheehan, of St. Philip Neri's, William McDonough, of St. Louis Bertrand's, and Joseph Lynch, of St. William's conference.

President Thomas K. Hines bade the visitors a hearty welcome in behalf of the Sacred Heart conference and called upon the President of the Particular Council for an address. He also recounted briefly the work that the Sacred Heart conference was doing and told of the splendid attendance at the meetings.

President Campbell in his remarks complimented the men he was addressing and urged them to bring young men into the organization. He dwelt upon the temporal and spiritual benefits the society conferred upon Catholic men. When a man is a good Vincentian, he said, there was no doubt as to his salvation. He urged frequent visits to the poor and the distressed and admonished them to make their beneficiaries understand that they were being afforded temporary relief, not charity. This, he said, would lessen their humiliation, and no Vincentian wanted to humiliate his fellow-man. He also urged them to secure work for the unemployed and thus restore in them a measure of self-confidence. The Sacred Heart conference, said Mr. Campbell, ought to be the banner conference of the city.

Edward J. O'Brien, of St. Patrick's conference, said the purpose of these visits was to encourage the various conferences in their good work. He spoke highly of the Sacred Heart conference and expressed his pleasure at what he heard and saw during the morning. The Vincentian, he said, was true to his family and his neighbor. There are no limits to his charity; he does good for the welfare of the whole community. He said the examples set by the Vincentians was of great benefit to men who occasionally stumbled and fell by the wayside. In conclusion he urged the necessity for regular attendance at the meetings.

Edward J. Bosler, of St. Bridget's conference, was the next speaker. He told of the manifest appreciation of these visits to the various conferences and of the efforts being made by the Particular Council to inspire a feeling of encouragement.

William T. Meehan, of St. Mary Magdalen's conference, made a special plea that more young men be gathered into the fold of the society, and Thomas Sheehan, of St. Philip Neri's, said that spiritual poverty could be set aside by one good example. Vincentians were helping their neighbors, helping each other and aiding the priest. This society, he said, was a soul insurance organization. Will McDonough, of St. Louis Bertrand's, and Joseph Lynch, of St. William's, also made brief addresses.

The Rev. Father Patrick Walsh was the last speaker. He said the addresses he had heard were eloquent and sensible, and he invited the visitors to come often. He had many kind words for his conference, which, he said, stood ready at all times to aid him and to aid other conferences in the work of practical Christian charity.

The Particular Council held its regular monthly meeting at St. Francis' Hall on Monday night. After the ordinary routine business had been disposed of Secretary Doyle read a letter from Paris announcing that St. William's and the Blessed Sacrament conferences had been aggregated to the society throughout the world. These are the latest conferences organized in Louisville. Arrangements were also perfected for the quarterly meeting of all the conferences, which will be held at St. Francis' Hall at 8 o'clock on Sunday, April 29.

LEGISLATOR MUCH IMPROVED.

The Hon. Emmet Slattery, who made such a splendid record as a member of the House of Representatives in the Legislature just adjourned, underwent a delicate operation for an acute formation on the glands of the right side of the neck at St. Joseph's infirmary last week. He is improving rapidly and will remove to his home today.

BELOVED PRIEST DEAD.

The Rev. Father Merschman, pastor of St. Mark's church at Richmond, was found dead in bed in his rectory on Palm Sunday morning. Death resulted from heart failure. The deceased was fifty-five years old and a native of Germany. He had labored long in the diocese of Covington, principally at Newport. Over a year ago his health became so poor that he was transferred to Richmond, where the duties were lighter. He was greatly beloved by his fellow priests. The remains were sent to Newport, where they were interred on Tuesday.

FIRST MASS.

Rev. Father Sylvester Alhaus Will Officiate at St. Peter's.

Tomorrow will be a gala day for St. Peter's congregation, since the people not only celebrate the festival of Easter, but will likewise attend the first mass of a former member of the parish, the Rev. Father Sylvester Alhaus, O. M. C. For the first time during the fifty years that the congregation has been established one of her own boys will celebrate the divine mysteries.

The young Levite will sing the high mass at 10 o'clock. He will be assisted by the Rev. Father Leo Greulich, while the Rev. Father Jerome Preisser will be deacon of the mass and the Rev. Father Paul Vollrath, subdeacon. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Father Leo Greulich.

Father Alhaus was born in Germany twenty-three years ago. When quite a small child his parents removed to America and settled in Louisville. He is one of eight children and his father and mother reside at 1623 West Kentucky street. After completing his early education at St. Peter's parochial school he pursued his studies at the colleges of Minor Conventuals in Syracuse, Trenton and Albany. He was ordained at the latter place by the Right Rev. Bishop Burke on March 31.

His family are all devout Catholics and one of his sisters is a member of the Ursuline order, Sister Sylvester, who is now engaged in teaching at St. Helen's parochial school, in Jefferson county.

ALL ARRANGED.

Division I Has Planned a Big Time For the Next Meeting.

The attendance at the meeting of Division I, A. O. H., on Tuesday night was not large, but what it lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. In the absence of President John M. Mulvey and Vice President Thomas D. Clines, Thomas Dolan occupied the chair. Patrick O'Connor was elected to membership. James Dugan, who was ill, was reported able to resume his duties, while the condition of James Cusick, who is suffering from rheumatism, shows no improvement.

A communication was received from Charles J. Cronan, the real estate man, submitting a proposition for a permanent home for the order. Col. Lum Simons sent a communication concerning the advantages of Riverview Park as a site for picnic purposes, and the Commercial Club sent the division a formal notice of home coming week.

It was announced that the new degree team would confer the degrees on a large class at the next meeting, Tuesday, April 24. Division I will have fourteen candidates, while each of the other divisions will have candidates for initiation at the same time. Every member of the order will be notified of the forthcoming exemplification of the ritual. Capt. Thomas Riley, Michael Tynan and William M. Higgins will have charge of the social session that will follow the initiation. An abundance of refreshments will be provided.

LENIHAN IS LUCKY.

Joseph L. Lenihan has been appointed transfer clerk in the City Assessor's office. The appointment was made Monday by City Assessor Louis Summers. Mr. Lenihan was for several years a deputy in the office of the County Assessor during the incumbency of Benson O. Herr and made an enviable record. He is Vice President of Division 4, A. O. H., and President of Satoll Council, Y. M. I. Mr. Lenihan has a host of friends, who will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

CARPET FOR SANCTUARY.

The ladies of the Altar Society of the Church of the Sacred Heart, at Seventeenth and Broadway, have arranged a pleasant surprise for the congregation tomorrow. Not only will the altars and sanctuary be tastefully decorated for Easter, but a new green velvet carpet has been laid in the sanctuary. The Rev. Father Walsh is proud of his Altar Society and grateful to its members.

LIGHTNING STROKE.

Henry Gahafer, a young man well known in the West End, was stricken speechless during the electrical storm that passed over Louisville last Sunday night. He was in bed when the storm began and his condition was not discovered until Monday morning.

In response to his mother's call he pointed to the open transom and finally wrote a note to the effect that he had suffered a lightning stroke. Dr. Curran Pope is treating him with electrical batteries and has hopes of his speedy recovery.

PREPARED.

Everything in Readiness for Big Celebration of Catholic Knights.

Imposing Street Parade Will Take Place During the Afternoon.

The Public Invited to Hear Supreme President Gaudin's Lecture.

GOOD CAUSE SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America held a special meeting Friday night of last week to hear reports from the committee in charge of the arrangements for Supreme President Gaudin's reception and lecture on Sunday, April 22. President Newton G. Rogers occupied the chair and congratulated the members on the large attendance. Chairman William M. Higgins, of the Entertainment Committee, reported that Macaulay's Theater had been secured for President Gaudin's lecture and detailed minor matters that had been arranged for his reception and entertainment. The report of the committee was received with expressions of approval from all present.

Messrs. Michael Reichert, Henry Bosquet, John J. Score, Charles Hill and John Schalds made brief remarks relative to making the forthcoming lecture a success. Members were also reminded that Sunday, April 22, was the day set apart for the annual turn-out and celebration. President Rogers said he wanted to see all the Catholic Knights of the three Falls Cities on dress parade that day.

Branch 6 will approach holy communion in a body at St. Martin's church, and Branch 32 at St. Vincent de Paul's on that morning. In the afternoon the seventeen branches of Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville will assemble at St. Mary's Hall at Eighth and Grayson streets, and after forming in procession will march to St. Martin's church, where Mass and Gray streets, where solemn vespers will be sung. Messrs. Rogers, Reichert, Bosquet, Score, Secretary Harry Veeneman and Capt. Gus Kane made spirited addresses urging that every effort be made to make the procession an imposing one and to show the public that the order was something to be proud of. Besides Supreme President Gaudin, State President Henry Homer and Altenburg and Major Gen. Kadeski, Supreme Trustee Peter Wallrath, Inspector General Beckman and all the Kentucky State officers are expected to review the parade, assist at the solemn vespers and participate in the evening entertainment at Macaulay's.

One important feature of the street parade will be the first public appearance of the new companies of the uniform rank attired in their handsome black and silver fatigue suits. Capt. Gus Kane is holding frequent drills of both companies and expects the men to make a splendid showing. Upon the motion of John J. Score the officers were instructed to procure a band to head the procession, and announcement was made that the local commanderies of the Knights of St. John were being invited to take part in the parade.

Henry Bosquet, for many years prominent in the councils of the order, said the coming of President Gaudin and his official staff had been well advertised, and voiced the opinion that Macaulay's Theater would hardly be able to accommodate the crowd that would seek admission.

The Supreme President is well versed in Catholic affairs and is a speaker of ability. He will talk on matters of intense interest and every Catholic man and woman in the three Falls Cities is invited to the entertainment, for which no admission fee will be charged. The orator of the evening will illustrate his subject with stereopticon views. Other members of prominence in the order will address the assemblage, and with the musical numbers the programme will be very interesting.

It was decided to postpone the regular meeting of the Central Committee one week instead of holding it on Good Friday night. Delegate Score created much enthusiasm when he made known the fact that Branch 4 was back in its old-time form and coming rapidly to the front. One new member was obligated and seven applications received at the last meeting and four more would be presented Monday night. Col. Reichert said Branch 6 was near the 200 mark and expressed the belief that the membership would exceed that number within a few weeks. Capt. John Murphy spoke feelingly of the loyalty of the Central Committee, and John Kelly expressed his pleasure at the showing made by the uniform rank, which promised to be a power for good and an incentive to young men to join the Catholic Knights. Thos. Tohin, one of the veterans, said this was one of the best meetings the Central Committee ever held, and he wanted every member of the order to know of its proceedings.

Now that the Central Committee has done its part it behooves every Catholic who loves his home and family to assist in making the lecture and reception a success. It costs only your presence, and you will be rewarded with an intellectual treat. The Catholic Knights of America have done great work during the past thirty years. They have disbursed millions among the widows and orphans, protecting those who were left without a natural protector and educating parentless children. The order has passed through several crises, but is today stronger and better than ever. Let every good Catholic encourage the Supreme officers and the Central Committee in the good work they have in hand.

The committee of arrangements for the procession, reception of Supreme President Gaudin and lecture met at the home of Charles Hill, Twentieth and Walnut streets, on Thursday night, when final preparations were completed. The seventeen branches and uniformed companies will meet at St. Mary's Hall, Eighth and Grayson, at 1:15 o'clock and form in procession and march to St. Martin's church over the following route: Eighth street to Walnut, to Fifth, thence past the Cathedral to Jefferson, to Third, to Market, to Brook, thence past St. Michael's to Jefferson, to Jackson, to Green, thence past St. Boniface to Clay, then past St. John's, Walnut to Shelby and St. Martin's, where the solemn high vespers will be sung and an address delivered by the Rev. Father Ohle.

The committee also elected its Chairman, William M. Higgins, editor of the Kentucky Irish American, to preside at the evening entertainment and to introduce Dr. Gaudin and the other speakers.

RECENT DEATHS.

Miss Hannah Shaahy died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bridget Foley, 823 East Jefferson street, on Saturday. The deceased was a young lady well liked in the East End. The funeral took place from St. Michael's church on Monday morning.

Many expressions of sympathy have been sent to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kerr on the death of their ten-year-old daughter, Lillian, who died at the family residence, 2015 Bank street, on Saturday. The funeral took place from St. Cecilia's church on Monday afternoon.

Officer John Heslin and his beloved wife have the sympathy of many friends in the loss of their three-year-old girl, Mary Agnes Heslin, who was called to heaven early Tuesday morning. The funeral took place from Sacred Heart church on Wednesday morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Johnson, who died at the home of her son, William B. Johnson, 332 Caydon street, Saturday evening, took place from the Cathedral of the Assumption on Monday morning. The deceased was sixty-two years old and was the widow of William Johnson, who died several years ago.

John R. Duane, a seventeen-year-old youth, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lavinia Duane, 1423 Seventh street, on Wednesday morning. He had suffered from a prolonged attack of rheumatism and his death was not unexpected. The funeral took place from St. Louis Bertrand's church on Friday morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann McGinty, wife of Edward McGinty, who died on Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Gallagher, 2145 Duncan street, took place from St. Cecilia's church on Monday morning. The deceased was the wife of Edward McGinty and was a most estimable lady. She was seventy-five years old and a native of Ireland.

Charles Francis Durning, aged twenty-two years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Durning, 1315 Nineteenth street, on Sunday afternoon, after an illness of a week. The deceased fell a victim to pneumonia. His funeral took place from the Sacred Heart church on Tuesday morning. The dead youth was quite popular and a large circle of mourning friends attended the mass of requiem that was celebrated by the Rev. Charles P. Raffo.

Patrick M. Hanley, one of the old members of the Cathedral congregation, died at his residence, 436 West Walnut street, on Tuesday morning. He was born in the County Galway, Ireland, eighty years ago, but came to Louisville when quite a youth. All his life he was active in church societies. One son, John M. Hanley, of Frankfort, Secretary-Treasurer of the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse Company, survives him. The funeral took place from the Cathedral of the Assumption on Thursday afternoon.

HAVE HOPE.

Thomas Camfield, a respected resident of the East End and well known in Catholic society circles, lies in a serious condition at his home on Payne street, suffering from an attack of pneumonia with which he was stricken last Sunday. The attending physician called a consultation for Friday, too late for the result to be made known in this issue.

PROMOTION FOR FORD.

Lawrence Ford, who represents the First ward in the City Council of Jeffersonville, has been promoted to the position of night conductor on the Pennsylvania Lines' bridge freight.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Monsignor Bourne, the Archbishop of Westminster, has informed the Vatican authorities that the newly elected Irish members in the British Parliament have decided to introduce during the present session a bill authorizing the institution of an Irish Catholic university in Dublin.

GLORIOUS.

Feast of the Resurrection Will Be Celebrated Everywhere Tomorrow.

Ecclesiastical Year Divided Into Three Grand and Separate Parts.

Sentiments that Should Actuate Catholics at This Holy Time.

ONLY ONE THING IS NECESSARY

Tomorrow will be Easter Sunday, the day set apart by our holy mother church to commemorate the glorious resurrection of our Saviour from the dead. The churches put off their mourning garments and expect their faithful adherents to put off the garments of iniquity and to robe themselves in the clothing of divine grace. Organs and choirs ring out their gladdest notes and all proclaim "Christ is risen." Flowers in gorgeous abundance decorate the altars and their sweet perfume fills the air.

It is indeed a time of thanksgiving and the church does all in her power to bring this glorious mystery to our senses. In every clime and in every land the faithful men, women and children will receive holy communion and thank God for the blessings bestowed upon the world through the instrumentality of his Son, our Saviour. But, now that Lent is over, we are not supposed to fall back into sin because we have left the fasts and prayers of that holy season behind. On the contrary, we must ever strive for greater perfection and each succeeding Easter should find in us many spiritual improvements.

"What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" asked the Saviour. St. Ignatius tells us that is the one thing necessary. The church, through her succession of festivals, reminds us that the salvation of our immortal souls is the only end for which we should strive. If we live the life of the just our eternal happiness will be assured.

The church teaches us that, since original sin, time has been the day granted by divine justice to guilty man in order that he may do penance, and the Council of Trent declares that the life of a Christian ought to be a continual penance. The year is divided by the church into three parts—the first comprises Advent, the second extends from Christmas to the Ascension, the third begins at Pentecost and extends to All Saints' day. Advent reminds us of the 4,000 years during which the Messiah was expected. The second period includes the mortal life of Jesus Christ. The last part of the year recalls the life of the saints.

Christian festivals recall the great mysteries of religion as well as the examples of our Lord, the Blessed Virgin and the saints. These days were instituted to inspire us with gratitude toward God and a desire of imitating the saints, to excite us to the different virtues which we are more particularly bound to practice in each of the seasons of the year, and to give us some rest from our labors and make them useful to us by showing us how to sanctify them.

Easter Sunday is one of these great feasts and in order to celebrate it well the church tells us that we must endeavor to understand well her intention. We must excite in our hearts sentiments corresponding to this great festival and we must prepare ourselves by a cessation of sin and by the practice of good works to receive the sacraments of penance and Holy Eucharist. If we do not correspond with the grace of God the festival of Easter is as nothing to us.

The services in all the local Catholic churches tomorrow will be very elaborate and the decorations will be unusually handsome. The musical programmes will be of great excellence. Owing to the large number of churches it is impossible to give each programme in detail.

MACKIN COUNCIL.

Mackin Council, Y. M. I., held another splendid meeting Monday night. Ben Ausdenmore and John Schaefer were reported improving, while Joseph Wald and Emmet Schnell are entirely well. The application of John I. McIntyre was received. The committee arranging for the dance on Monday night reported favorable progress.

President James O'Hara, Con McBaron and Joseph Trudeau, of Unity Council, New Albany, addressed the meeting in behalf of the bazar which opens on Easter Monday. It is probable that Mackin's members will visit the bazar in a body on Thursday night. Many interesting addresses were delivered during the evening. It was announced that beginning next week the meetings would be held on Tuesday night instead of Monday night, as has been the custom during Lent.

THOUGHTS ON VOCATION.

Just issued from the press is a bright illustrated booklet entitled "Thoughts on Vocation," prepared by the Christian Brothers for the benefit of young men desiring helpful suggestions on the subject of vocation. While the book is adapted to all seasons of the year, it is particularly suitable for such occasions as missions and retreats. Besides the subject of vocation, which is treated in a strikingly bright and encouraging manner, other topics of vital interest, such as life and its work, time and eternity, are briefly discussed. The closing chapters are devoted to the history of the Christian Brothers and the requirements for membership in the order. While the work has been prepared for gratuitous distribution among young men exclusively, complimentary copies will be sent to all readers of this paper upon application to Brother E. Alfred, Ammen-dale, Md.

DECISIVE VICTORY.

The Kentucky Irish American Bowlers Defeat New Albany Team.

The Kentucky Irish American bowling team defeated a picked team of New Albany bowlers on the Hoosier bowling alleys, Pearl street, on Tuesday night, in three stoutly contested games. The attendance at the games was large and the male population of New Albany was out in force to root for the home team.

The Kentucky Irish American team won the championship of the Falls City Bowling League during the season just closed. A week ago John P. Oetken, of the Kentucky Irish Americans, received a challenge from the New Albany bowlers and accepted it at once. Then the New Albany crowd got busy and selected the best men from eight teams to go against the Louisville visitors. After trying out the cracks, Messrs. Herfel, Paulson, Schlager, Harrison and A. Hildebrand were chosen to uphold the standard of New Albany. The Kentucky Irish American team was made up of Albert D. Gregg, John N. Kinberger, George Boardman, Robert Southard and John J. Barry. The agreement was that the side with the greatest pinfall was to be declared the winner, the losers to pay for the alleys. A purse was also hung up for the contestants.

The Kentucky Irish American team won all three games and their total pinfall exceeded the New Albany cracks by 279. After the game the Louisville visitors were entertained at Klarer's Cafe by Walter Klarer, of New Albany.

ETERNAL REST.

Final Summons For Priest Who Had Been Long Sufferer.

The Rev. Father McLoughlin, a popular young priest of this diocese, died at St. Anthony's Hospital early Sunday morning. Death resulted from exhaustion following a prolonged attack of locomotor ataxia. Father McLoughlin was born in Scranton thirty-six years ago. Ten years ago he was ordained and came to this diocese. For a brief period he was assistant priest at St. John's church in this city. Later he was on rural missions in various parts of the diocese. Four years ago he fell a victim to typhoid fever and, although he apparently recovered, the insidious disease left him a prey to locomotor ataxia. Everything known to medical science was done for him, but his occasional spells of relief were very brief. Three months ago, and shortly after he had been appointed Chaplain at Loretto Academy, the last attack came. He was brought to this city and taken to St. Anthony's Hospital. There he slowly sank until the final summons. He met death calmly, almost joyfully, as a release from his earthly sufferings.

The remains of the dead priest were sent to Taylor, Pa., where he passed his early boyhood. Four brothers, who are in business in Scranton, survive him.

FINAL VOWS.

Two novices of the order of Sisters of Mercy will take their final vows at St. Catherine's Academy, 1152 East Broadway, on Easter Monday after the 8 o'clock mass. These young ladies, who resolved to give up the world, made their initiatory vows two years ago. Miss Bessie McDonald will be known in religion as Sister Dorothy and Miss Nellie Moran will be known as Sister Mary Bernadette. The Rev. Father Remigius Hauenstein, O. F. M., will celebrate the mass, and the Rev. Father Justin Carey, C. P., will preach the sermon. The friends of the two prospective nuns will witness the ceremonies of profession.

THE TENEBRAE.

St. Louis Bertrand's church was crowded Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. People from many of the other parishes were present to hear the service of the Tenebrae sung. The Dominican priests who took part in the Holy Week ceremonies were the Very Rev. Father Logan, Fathers Clark, Dunn, Heenan, McFeely, Flood and Kernan. The repository on Holy Thursday was located on St. Joseph's altar, where the floral decorations were artistic, the green and white color scheme being beautifully carried out, while the illuminations were elaborate.

ACTING CHIEF.

Major Patrick Ridge is acting Chief of Police in the absence of Col. Sebastian Gunther, who is taking a rest of ten days at French Lick Springs.

BIG BAZAR.

Unity Council's Enterprise Will Open on Easter Monday Afternoon.

Catholic Ladies of New Albany Aiding in Making It a Success.

Members of the Y. M. I. Have Been Leaders in Church Works.

THURSDAY WILL BE LOUISVILLE DAY

The bazar to be given for the building fund of Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, will open at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. St. Joseph's Hall, Eighth and Spring streets, where it is to be held, has been tastefully decorated for the occasion and the various booths are laden with many handsome and valuable articles. As Monday is Easter Monday and a holiday for school children, it has been decided to make the opening "Children's day." Thursday will be Louisville day and the members of Mackin, Trinity and Satoll Councils are invited to attend in a body. On Monday the children will not be charged any admission fee. Supper will be served by the Catholic ladies of New Albany. Meal tickets will be sold to adults at twenty-five cents, children fifteen cents.

Mrs. T. M. Moritz is general chairman of the committee of ladies who will have charge of the bazar and dining room. The ladies who will have charge of the culinary arrangements on the various nights are as follows:

Monday—Messdames H. Fein and Martin Routh.

Tuesday—Messdames B. Hinkebein and A. Bicot.

Wednesday—Messdames B. Graf and Stephen Day.

Thursday—Messdames Thomas Hanlon and Thomas Tighe.

Friday—Messdames J. Miller and M. Houston.

Saturday—Messdames John Finger and J. McCrackin.

The young ladies who have entered the contest for the piano are Misses Clara Bir, Minnie Fein, Stella Lang, Rosa Schwarzhofmann and Maud O'Donnell. The piano will be awarded to the one who receives the greatest number of votes. A Shetland pony will be awarded to the most popular boy. The contestants are Michael Steiner, Willie James and Ed Krehbach.

The clergy of New Albany are aiding by every means in their power the work that is being done by the members of Unity Council and their lady friends. Supreme President William Fogarty, of Indianapolis, and Grand President J. P. Friz, of Terre Haute, have been invited and are expected to spend Thursday in New Albany.

During the past ten years Unity Council has done much for church and charitable enterprises in New Albany and its members were leaders in the work of raising funds for St. Edward's Hospital. These young men now desire the good people of the Falls Cities to aid them in securing their own hall. It will be a commodious and substantial building and will be equipped with all modern improvements. The erection of the new building will begin at once if the bazar is successful. The structure will be located midway between St. Mary's and Holy Trinity churches.

The various booths and the ladies in charge will be:

Ice cream—Miss Anna Kistner.

Handkerchiefs—Mrs. Peter Petter.

Quilts and comforts—Ida Kuhlir.

Fancy work—Mrs. Ben Glidhaus.

Candy—Mrs. William Reuever.

The Ways and Means Committee, which has full control of the bazar, is made up of James O'Hara, Chairman; Charles F. Pfeffer, Secretary-Treasurer; Emil Dupaquier and Matt Roth. These gentlemen will be on hand every night. Twelve other members of the council will act as assistant managers every evening.

All the members are loud in their praise of Mrs. Mary Breetz, the general chairman of the ladies' committee. It was through her hard work that so many ladies became interested.

FATHER LOGAN WELCOMED.

The Very Rev. Father Bernard P. Logan, O. P., the new Prior of St. Louis Bertrand's church, arrived in Louisville Monday evening and at once assumed the duties of his office. He has been given a warm welcome by those of his former parishioners who have been fortunate enough to meet him. Father Logan will address the people of the congregation at the various masses tomorrow.

DOUBLE EVENT.

The Very Rev. Father Lawrence Bax, the venerable pastor of St. John's church at Clay and Walnut streets, will celebrate a double event tomorrow. In the first place it will be Easter Sunday; it will also be the seventy-eighth birthday of Father Bax. He will sing the solemn high mass at 10 o'clock with deacon and sub-deacon. The choir under the direction of Miss Dymphna Veeneman will render appropriate music.

IN RIGHT DIRECTION.

An Associated Press telegram, bearing all the earmarks of authenticity, is authority for the statement that there is a plan on foot to establish in the United States a national association of Catholic young men on lines similar to the Young Men's Christian Association. It is said that the plan has the indorsement of Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Farley and Ryan and of leading Catholic laymen. According to the telegram W. Bourke Cockran and John D. Crimmins, of New York; Justice McKenna, of the United States Supreme Court; the Countess Leary and other wealthy Catholics have offered material aid to the movement. The present plan contemplates a million dollar trust fund as a nucleus. At the close of the centenary celebration of the Baltimore Cathedral the plan will be thoroughly discussed by the assembled hierarchy, and it is probable that a national committee to superintend the movement will be formed. The idea is by no means a new one, but it has been many years in getting the attention of the people best able to further the movement. The Young Men's Institute in the West and the Catholic Young Men's Association in the East have been working along these lines for years, and both organizations have done good work in their respective spheres. But many branches of these societies were handicapped for lack of funds and because their efforts failed to secure proper appreciation by ecclesiastical authorities. It may take several years to get the new organization in working shape, but when a start is made it will prove a boon to the entire Catholic population of the United States. The Calender, the official organ of the Paulist Fathers, commenting on the movement, says: "Not many years ago, when the Knights of Columbus were organized, there were those who said that such a society is impossible; nevertheless it was established. Again, in 1893, when it was suggested that priests give missions to non-Catholics, there were those who said that such a plan was impossible of execution and, at the very least, imprudent and untimely; yet the missions to non-Catholics are succeeding. So it is with this work; a Catholic Y. M. C. A. is not impossible; it needs but the man to organize it. The time is at hand; the boys are waiting, and they are suffering while they wait. It will cost effort; it will cost worry; it will cost money; but it will save boys; it will build up characters; it will preserve religion; in no small measure it will help to fill our country with men of intellect and conscience. The hour is here. The need is pressing."

LOUISVILLE ON A BOOM.

Louisville is enjoying one of the greatest booms in her history. Buildings are going up everywhere. In the business district tall skyscrapers are rearing their skeletons of steel, manufacturers are enlarging their plants and building new ones to accommodate the ever increasing trade, and merchants, mechanics and laborers are building their respective homes in the city or adjacent thereto. The boom is not spasmodic—it has come to stay. It means that Louisville has taken on a new and real life and lack of enterprise in this city is a thing of the past. Workmen are in demand and wages are fair in nearly all the trades. The only serious labor trouble is that existing between the printers and employers, and that does not affect the prosperity of the city materially. The new office building of the L. & N. Railroad Company at Ninth street and Broadway is well on its way to completion. The Paul Jones building on Fourth street, and extending from Green to Jefferson, is moving along rapidly despite the bad weather of the past month. Work on the Lincoln Savings Bank at Fourth and Market and the new Peter Lee Atherton building at Fourth and Chestnut has been begun. The new Mary Anderson Theater will begin at an early date, and while little progress has been made on the free library the work is still going on. In addition new churches are either in process of erection or contemplation and the magnificent new home of the Passionists is nearing completion. With all the new enterprises going on there is work for everybody and an era of peace and plenty seems in store for Louisville.

THE VESUVIUS HORROR.

The continued activity of Mount Vesuvius is adding new horrors to the situation in Naples and its vicinity. Whole towns have been covered up, churches have been destroyed and more than 1,000 lives have been lost during the past two weeks. The property loss has been estimated at not less than $20,000,000, and 50,000 families have been rendered homeless. King and Queen, priest and prelate, soldier and Cardinal, have done all in their power to relieve the distress occasioned. Thus far America has not been called upon to aid these plague-stricken people. If the call is made there can be no doubt that the response will be prompt, generous and general.

THE STAGE IRISHMAN.

Hibernians of Providence protested against a species of the stage Irishman last week and caused the objectionable sketch to be withdrawn. Local Hibernians might help elevate the stage and also aid in eradicating the base caricatures of their race by resenting their presentation. Idle threats count for naught. The tenderest spot about the theatrical manager is his pocket-book. Touch him there and he winces. If the Hibernians will make it a rule to avoid playhouses where the Irish are caricatured the practice will soon be abandoned.

In the death of Warren E. Mosher, founder of the Catholic Summer School at Cliff Haven, N. Y., and founder of the Catholic Reading Circle, the Church in America has sustained a great loss. Some day his efforts may be even better appreciated than they are now.

The attendance at the Lenten devotions this year has been very large, and he it said to their credit the men appeared to vie with the women in their regularity at the various services. All the pastors ought to feel edified at the spiritual awakening of their flocks.

The Louisville Herald paid a splendid tribute to the worth of the late Mayor Patrick Collins, of Boston, in its Thursday edition.

DETECTIVE SEXTON'S TRIP.

Detective John M. Sexton is spending two weeks at Hot Springs, Ark., where he went to attend the convention of Police Chiefs of the United States and Canada. During the recent illness of Capt. Thomas Maher Detective Sexton was at the head of the bureau. He is thorough and earnest in his work and his friends here wish him an enjoyable trip.

SOCIETY.

Miss Hattie McMullen is enjoying a visit to her brother, Herbert McMullen, at Dayton, Ky.

Mrs. William Murphy, who has been seriously ill at her home in Parkland, is much improved.

Mrs. Mary McDewitt is confined to her home, 1122 Eighth street, by a painful attack of rheumatism.

The friends of Barney Coll, of Jeffersonville, are glad to see him out again after a month's serious illness.

Michael J. Walsh, the contracting painter, is confined to his home on Oldham street by a severe attack of the grip.

Sylvester Rapier, the leading banker of New Haven, visited his daughter in this city during the early part of the week.

Miss Mamie Lee, who has been attending school at Bardonia, came home to spend the Easter holidays with her parents.

Owen Nugent, of Bowling Green, is spending a week in this city, the guest of Frank W. Smith and of James and Peter Curran.

Mrs. Edward D. O'Connor, wife of the Magistrate, has gone to Pensacola, Fla., to spend a month in hopes of regaining her health.

Miss Celia Henley, a pupil at Mount Zion Academy, is spending the holidays with her father, Thomas Henley, 537 Twenty-sixth street.

Miss Mary Jordan, of Portland, who is at St. Joseph's infirmary suffering from a broken arm, is much improved and will soon be able to be out.

Sergt. Michael Sullivan has returned from Memphis, where he spent his ten days' furlough. He was the guest of his cousin, Louis Meyers.

Joseph Bernard Daut, one of Nelson county's prominent business men, spent the first part of this week in Louisville combining business with pleasure.

Joseph P. McGinn, who has been seriously ill at his home, 515 West Chestnut street, is somewhat improved and his friends expect to see him out in a few days.

Miss Rose Kelly, who is attending school at Mount Zion Academy, is spending the Easter holidays with her mother, Mrs. Rose Kelly, 511 Twenty-sixth street.

Miss Genevieve Hackett, who has been attending school at the Ursuline convent in Brown county, Ohio, arrived home Wednesday to celebrate the Easter holidays with her father, James L. Hackett.

Edward J. O'Brien, the popular dispenser for Tom O'Mara at Seventeenth and Rowan streets, is the proud father of two boys, ten and a half pounds each. They arrived April 4 and are fine and healthy.

Mrs. John M. Stevenson, of Chicago, and formerly well known in Louisville amateur dramatic circles when she was Miss Kathleen Kerrigan, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerrigan, in New Albany.

The many friends of Michael McNally will be glad to learn that he is rapidly improving from an attack of fever. He is a brother of Edward J. Martin and John McNally, all popular in Irish-American circles.

Thomas Filburn, who has been with the John C. Lewis Company since last July, has returned to his first love, J. Bacon & Sons. Tom has many friends all over the city who will follow him wherever he locates.

A number of Miss Mamie Keenan's young lady friends have arranged a linen shower in her honor. This pleasant event will take place at the home of Mrs. George L. Rensselaer, 2524 West Jefferson street, on Monday afternoon.

William Tynan, the popular agent of the Humane Society, is confined to his home, 1006 Ruter avenue, with a sprained ankle. While shooting a horse a few days ago to put it out of pain the animal fell upon him and caused the injury.

William E. Pinckney, of Bluffton, S. C., is the guest of James Keating at 1808 Portland avenue. He expects to combine business with pleasure and will take back several specimens of Kentucky horseflesh on his return to South Carolina.

Miss Katherine Ryan, of Central City, and Dr. Louis F. Hagg, of Paducah, will be united in matrimony at St. Martin's church, Central City, in May. Miss Ryan is the daughter of Mrs. J. Ryan, and is one of the belles of Western Kentucky.

Casper Hammer, one of the best known business men in Louisville, has been confined to his home for ten days, suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. He is resting easy and expects to be able to be out greeting his friends within a few days.

George Middendorf, who has been ill at his home, 1417 West Market street, during the past two months, is much improved and his many printer friends hope that he will be out next week to prosecute his candidacy for delegate to the International Typographical Union.

Mrs. Mary Malloy and grandson, John Malloy, Jr., left Tuesday for Memphis, where they will spend Easter week with Mrs. Malloy's daughter, Sister Mary Agnes, at St. Peter's Orphanage. Sister Mary Agnes was formerly Miss Maggie Malloy and entered the convent about fourteen years ago.

Mrs. Dolan, widow of Officer John

Dolan, who was shot and killed while attempting to quell a disturbance in an uptown saloon two years ago, arrived in Louisville with her infant son last Saturday. She has spent almost a year visiting relatives and friends in County Sligo, Ireland. Both Mrs. Dolan and the baby are in good health. She was accompanied to America by her brother, James O'Brien, who is also a brother of Michael O'Brien, a trusted employee of Diersen Bros.

Mrs. Mary E. Mulcahy has issued cards announcing the approaching wedding of her daughter, Miss Alice Marguerite, to John Lawrence Watson. The marriage will be solemnized at 9 o'clock on the morning of Wednesday, April 25, at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Washington and Buchanan streets. Nuptial mass will follow the marriage. Miss Mulcahy is the assistant manager of Kirby's store. Mr. Watson is bookkeeper for Frank A. Geber. The young couple will be at home at 1002 Morton avenue after May 10.

Mrs. Mary Nugent, of Bowling Green, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Catherine, to John Frederick Kenne. The wedding will be solemnized at St. John's church, Bowling Green, at 8 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, April 24, the Rev. Father Thomas Hayes officiating. A nuptial mass will follow the marriage ceremony. Miss Nugent is a popular belle of Bowling Green and a leading member of St. Joseph's choir. The prospective bridegroom is in business with his father, John Kenne, in Bowling Green. Both young people have many friends in Louisville.

The holy bonds of matrimony that will unite for life Miss Mamie Keenan and Joseph Farrell will be solemnized at St. Patrick's church at 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The Very Rev. Father Cronin, V. G., will perform the ceremony and will also officiate at the nuptial mass which is to follow. The ushers will be Thomas Keenan, Jr., a brother of the bride-elect; John Farrell, a brother of the prospective bridegroom; David Muloney and Daniel Lawler. While no formal invitations have been sent out the contracting parties desire their numerous friends to witness the wedding ceremony and also to visit the home of the bride's parents, 1229 West Market street, where an all day reception will be held in honor of the bride and groom.

ABOUT BELLS.

Mentioned in the Old Testament as Far Back as Exodus.

Just when bells were first made is not recorded in history. The Old Testament has frequent mention of bells. The Book of Exodus gave probably the earliest mention of them in its allusion to the six golden bells which tinkled around the vestments of the Levitical high priest. Euripides and Aristophanes speak of bells, and Plutarch refers to them in his life of Brutus, and Virgil in his Georgics. Various ancient examples have been found in excavations in the Far East.

There is no trustworthy evidence of the use of large bells before the dawn of Christianity. The credit for the invention of them is given to Paulinus, Bishop of Nola, in Campania. Paulinus lived about 400 A. D. It is claimed, however, by some antiquarians that the credit should go to Pope Sabianus, who succeeded Saint Gregory in the papal chair in 604. The earliest bells were probably not cast, but were made of metal plates riveted together. One set, which belonged to Saint Gall in 650, is still preserved in the town named for the saint in Switzerland, and another set, which tradition associated with Saint Paul, is shown at Belfast. These are made of iron, and are only about six inches high. In ancient days, when the art of bell-casting was still in the hands of the ecclesiastics, the furnace and castings were blessed.

Bells were first used in France in 560, in Greece in 864, and in the churches of Europe in 900. In Switzerland they first appeared in 1020. The first tunable set of bells known in England were first used in Croyland Abbey, Lincolnshire, in 960.

BAD LANGUAGE.

Catholics Above All Others Should Avoid Use of Profanity.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Catholic Union and Times of Buffalo, said editorially last week: "In a Catholic profanity is detestable. The tongue that touches the Holy Eucharist should never be as an adder's fang, forked with poison. The ear which is filled with the happy promises of Christ's word should not entertain a violation of Christ's name. The heart that is the very tabernacle of God's graces should not laugh when the devils are delighted."

The Kentucky Irish American wishes every one of its readers to impress these statements on their minds. Too often do we hear men who call themselves Catholics, but who are not real Catholics, profaning the name of God the Father and his Divine Son. Possibly a misdirected blow from a hammer causes a mangled finger, or the error of an employee is the occasion for an explosion of profanity that damages the soul of the man that gives vent to it and scandalizes all about him. Profanity is the most nonsensical of all vices. Intemperance, wrath, gluttony, envy and sloth give the sinner at least a modicum of pleasure, while profanity does nothing but damn the soul. Avoid the man who can not talk without using oaths. He has no information beneficial to you.

We might add that the Catholic superintendent of one of the largest manu-

Of Pure Food Will Display
Wares At Horse Show Building.

The Louisville Pure Food Show and Industrial Exposition will open at the Horse Show building, Fifth street, between Main and the river, on Monday afternoon and evening, and continue until April 28. Seventy-five leading manufacturers of food products will display their wares. It is estimated that at least $150,000 worth of foodstuffs will be shown and that samples to the value of $35,000 will be given away during the two weeks that the Pure Food Show is in progress.

Straub's Ladies' Orchestra, of New York, will furnish the music during the afternoon and evening. Admission will be twenty-five cents, but grocers have been supplied with tickets for their patrons. One of these tickets and ten cents will be good for admission during the afternoon and at night one of these tickets and fifteen cents will admit any one.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

A new division has been organized at Bridesburg, near Philadelphia. It starts out with sixty-one charter members.

Don't forget the initiation on Tuesday, April 24. Capt. Tom Riley is arranging for the entertainment of a crowd of several hundred.

Now that Lent is over, there should be a large attendance of members at meetings, as all divisions will have important questions to decide.

Next Friday night's meeting of Division 2 will be more than usually interesting. President Ford requests the presence of every member.

Division 6 of Utica expects to have its new hall completed in time to entertain the delegates to the New York State convention next September.

Division 3 meets Monday night, when the Literary Committee will announce the programme for the social sessions to be held during the next few months.

The ladies will meet Wednesday night. It is safe to say that all who attend will spend a most enjoyable evening, a number of surprises having been prepared for the members.

It is expected that 5,000 Hibernians will parade at Saratoga during the national convention week next July. The archdiocese of New York will be well represented.

Division 4 of Duluth, Minn., has increased its membership 60 per cent. during the past two years. The members are discussing Irish history and the Gaelic movement at its meetings.

Jeffersonville Hibernians expect many from this city to attend their ball Monday night. John Murphy, Barney Coll, Mike Kinney, Martin Fogarty, Peter Madden and others will assist in making it pleasant for visitors.

The entire Battalion of Hibernian Knights of Providence, R. I., celebrated the sixth anniversary of the founding of the order in that State with an evening devoted to Irish music and literature. About 1,500 persons attended the exercises.

Division 2 of Utica will give its last entertainment of the season on May 7. The Rev. Father D. J. Moore, the newly appointed State Chaplain, will deliver the address and the third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a large class.

This division has a degree team of twenty-eight, exclusive of the aids.

Division 4 of St. Paul entertained Division 4 of Minneapolis with an oyster supper at a recent meeting. The entertainment was the result of a membership contest between the rival divisions in the Twin Cities. Coffee, sandwiches and oysters were served in abundance. Besides there were addresses, vocal and instrumental music and boxing.

Members of the order in Providence caused a caricature sketch entitled "Mrs. Murphy" to be withdrawn from the stage in that city last week. The protest was made by the Rev. Father J. C. Walsh on behalf of the Hibernians. After hearing what the priest had to say the management withdrew the objectionable impersonation. If the order keeps up its good work the stage Irishman everywhere will have to go.

Bobzein's Cubana Cigar, 5c. Best made.
ACTION DEFERRED.

Division 4, A. O. H., met Wednesday evening, but owing to the fact that it was Holy Week the attendance was very small. In the absence of President Murphy and Vice President Leithan, Tom Lynch presided. Several important matters were presented, but action was deferred until the next meeting, when full attendance of the members is expected.

TRINITY COUNCIL BUSY.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., held a strictly business meeting on Monday night. Only matters of routine were discussed. Will Gast and John Voll were reported still on the sick list. The committee to arrange for the annual banquet reported that it would be held on May 3. All the members of the council and their lady friends will be invited to attend.

PLEASING PLAY.

The pupils attending the school of the Sisters of Providence in Jeffersonville will present the drama, "St. Elizabeth of Thuringia," at Spiehl's Theater on Wednesday evening. Henry W. Newman, of Louisville, has been coaching the young actors.

Memphis Council will initiate a class of fifty during May.

Buffalo Council conferred the third degree on a class of seventy-five at its last meeting.

Eric Council of Pennsylvania held a memorial meeting for deceased members on Palm Sunday.

Rhode Island Knights will hold their State convention at Pawtucket on the second Tuesday in May.

At Steubenville, Ohio, the Knights will place three artistic stained glass windows in the new St. Peter's church.

Pittsburg Knights are raising a $10,000 memorial for the new Cathedral. It will be a compliment to Bishop Canevin, the State Chaplain.

A new council was organized at Warren, R. I., last Sunday. The first and second degrees were conferred on a class of thirty-five.

Marquette Council, of Woonsocket, R. I., has voted to unite with Woonsocket Council. The former has fifty-three members in good standing and its treasury is well filled.

the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The death is announced of Very Rev. Richard Marner, of Killeel, County Down.

The New Ross Agricultural Society will hold their annual show the second week in July.

The Carlow agricultural show has been changed to August 7, in order not to conflict with the Clonmel show.

D. D. Sheehan, M. P., has been elected Chairman of the Mallow Land and Labor Association for the coming year.

At the last meeting of the Derry Chamber of Commerce a resolution was passed in favor of the establishment of a flax market.

The recent fairs held at Foxford, County Mayo, was very successful. The judges spoke highly of the answering in the literary competitions.

While unloading timber at the Atlantic sawmills at Galway Redmond Sullivan was so severely injured by a log falling on him that he died the next day.

Cornelius Hayes, aged eighty-six, a care-taker of an evicted farm near Middleton, was found dead in the residence on the farm, sitting on a chair beside the fire.

The Lord Chief Baron in opening the Belfast assizes congratulated the city on its immunity from crime, notwithstanding the fact that there had been three contested elections in the city since the last assizes.

At the Galway assizes Michael Green, M. Healy, Patrick Ryan and John Fallon pleaded not guilty to a charge of having fired shots at Francis Shawe Taylor with intent to murder him. Ryan and Green were acquitted by direction of Justice Wright, and the jury also acquitted the other prisoners.

A distinct want has been supplied by the construction of the new line between Ballyrooney and Newcastle. By it a wide tract of the County Down is opened up which before could only be reached by a long, circuitous route at a considerable cost of time and money. From Dublin it will now be possible to reach Newcastle in less than three and one-half hours, and the journey to various points in East and South Down will be proportionately shortened.

A few weeks ago the police of Breaffy, in the Sligo district, observed two boats coming from Inishmurray island. Reaching Breaffy a number of kegs were let from the boats into the water. When the boats had moved away the police, who had been in hiding, waded into the water and recovered seventeen kegs containing over fifty gallons of illicit whisky, evidently intended for sale in the Magherow district, one of the poorest on the western seaboard. The kegs contained stones for the purpose of sinking them.

Rev. H. Kerris, for the past twelve years in charge of the parish of Killorglin, has been transferred to the parish of Prior and has left for his new charge. During his sacred mission in Killorglin Father Kerris endeavored himself to all with whom he came in contact, especially the poor. While glad of his well merited promotion all are sorry for losing his services. Zealous and prompt in the discharge of his every duty, he was kind and sympathetic to the erring, while as a preacher he had few if any equals in the diocese.

Irishmen maybe interested in the recent success of Irish tobacco culture, which has just been announced. To the information already in the possession of the public as to the hopeful character of the experiment the yield of the last crop may be mentioned with interest. In Col. Everard's farm at Randalstown the thirteen and a half acres produced about 15,000 pounds, while the smaller tobacco plot planted by Capt. Tasse at Glenkiln produced 3,000 pounds of leaf. This is a yield of about half a ton of leaf per acre. This yield is entirely satisfactory, while the quality of the leaf is reported to be excellent. Both quality and yield are considered in expert circles most hopeful for the success of the experiment.

KNIGHTS ARE BUSY.

The Catholic Knights of America in Providence, R. I., are up and bustling. Branch 399 has initiated twenty-one new members within the past two months. Branch 689, in the same city, initiated three members at its last meeting. The several branches will unite in giving an excursion to Newport, in June.

OPENS TOMORROW.

Fontaine Ferry Park Will Begin Its Season Early.

Fontaine Ferry Park will throw open its gates for the season of 1906 tomorrow afternoon. The park has been thoroughly arranged for the opening and a season of great popularity is ahead. The management has arranged many new and interesting features, with a view to pleasing ladies and children. A skating rink 220x80 feet is the latest adjunct to the park. Besides these the park's place on tours will prove of interest to all. The scenic railway, circle swing and all the attractions of last year have been much improved. Kyril's band of forty trained musicians will be the opening attraction and will give two performances each day.

Throughout the grounds improvements have been made and hundreds of new lights have been swung. Both day and night the park will present an inviting appearance and everything possible will be done to conduct it along clean and wholesome lines, which made it such an inviting resort last season.

BUSY PLACE.

Churchill Downs Has Been Very Lively During the Week.

Churchill Downs was one of the busiest places in Louisville this week. Trainers and horses came in on every train and Secretary Davis had a busy week in assigning the equine thoroughbreds to stables. From now until Derby day Churchill Downs will be the Mecca of the lover of fast horses. Men who are slothful at all other periods of the year will rise betimes to visit the beautiful home of the Louisville Jockey Club in an endeavor to gain inside information on the fleet-footed horses.

It is the consensus of opinion that the spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club will be the most successful ever held, since so many equine wonders are being sent here from other tracks.

FRANK TIGHE VERY ILL.

The numerous friends of Frank Tighe will be pained to learn that he is still very ill at his home, 1321 West Broadway. Mr. Tighe has been ill during the past seven weeks and his condition, while not alarming, is not at all improved. For many years prior to his illness he was a locomotive fireman in the employ of the L. & N. railroad, and eight months ago was promoted to the position of engineer. He is a son of James Tighe, a veteran engineer of the same company, and a brother of Misses May and Loretta Tighe.

ENGINEERS TO DANCE.

The L. & N. engineers who compose Division 78 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and their Ladies Auxiliary, Kentucky Division 239, will give their fourth annual dance at Masonic Temple Wednesday evening, April 25. E. W. Marriott is Chairman of the committee of arrangements for the engineers, while the ladies are represented by Mesdames James Tighe, K. W. Frazier and Charles W. Hoffman.

FIREMEN HURT.

Capt. Michael J. Cassin, of the No. 3 truck company, sprained his ankle while sliding down the pole in answer to a fire alarm on Monday night. While working at the same fire Stoker John Gambrell, of the No. 15 engine company, sustained painful injuries to his right arm.

C. K. of A.—The evil in most mutual insurance companies is that they do not accept their members equally. The Catholic Knights of America have an equitable scale of rates for all ages, which guarantees the payment of every Benefit Certificate at no charge in the monthly cost after initiation.

AMUSEMENTS.

Rife's "Yankee Doodle Girls" will hold the boards at the Buckingham Theater next week. Between the burlesques a vaudeville turn of exceptional merit will be presented and the Baker troupe will present a thrilling venture, "Looping the 800."

Ben Greet and his company will present "The Merchant of Venice" at Macaulay's Theater Monday afternoon and "Macbeth" at night. During the latter half of the week "The Gingerbread Man," with many novelties from nursery rhymes, will be produced.

The Princess Skating Rink continues to enjoy great popularity and for next week the management has announced new features. Prizes will be awarded each night for the most attractive costumes, while on Saturday night a special prize will be awarded the ugliest man.

A fitting close to the season at Hopkins' Theater will be given by the Great Orpheum Show which is booked for a return engagement. It is by long odds the most stupendous offering of the vaudeville stage and it is expected that packed houses will witness the performances throughout the week. Every act is of headline proportions.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.

Post Lenten Festivities Are Planned by Many Different Bodies.

The post-Lenten social gatherings will begin immediately after Easter and the faithful followers of the church who have refrained from euchar, theaters and dances during the past six weeks will again meet to engage in legitimate pleasures. All know that refraining from these pleasures only gives additional zest when they are renewed.

Mackin's social club will give one of its select dances on Easter Monday night and a large crowd of merry-makers is expected. The dancing hall has been repainted and renovated, so that it will be more attractive than ever.

The Jeffersonville division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will also make merry on Easter Monday night. The members have arranged to give a euchar and dance at Speth's Hall on that evening. They invite their friends from Louisville and New Albany to attend and help make the occasion a pleasant one.

INDOOR CIRCUS.

Latest Attraction Secured for the Big Military Carnival.

Everything is progressing favorably in the arrangements that are being made for the big military carnival that is to be held at the armory from April 30 to May 12 inclusive. Among the latest attractions secured is Heck's indoor circus. This aggregation is said to be one of the greatest in the United States and is composed of a variety of carnival shows. Many of the turns are fresh from the great hippodrome in New York.

Besides the circus there will be a multiplicity of other attractions that are calculated to draw large crowds to the armory and thus aid in securing funds for the proper equipment of Kentucky's First Regiment. Col. James P. Gregory, Chairman of the Executive Committee, is enthused over the prospects and he declares that Louisville will have the greatest military carnival ever held in the country.

VISIT WILLIAM P. SHERIDAN.

Attention is called to the advertisement of William P. Sheridan, the dealer in wall paper, in another column of this issue. Persons contemplating repapering their homes should visit his establishment at 811 West Market street before making their contracts. He is prepared to furnish the latest styles in wall paper at the lowest prices, and employs none but experienced workmen.

PHOENIX HILL PARK.

Phoenix Hill Park, always a popular place of amusement, is now open for engagements for picnics, outings and euchar during the summer season. Manager Theodore L. Zabel is prepared to make contracts for the spring and summer months. Societies contemplating picnics would do well to wait upon him before the good dates are engaged.

INHERITS FORTUNE.

Thomas O'Connor, one of the most prominent Democrats in Evansville, has been notified that he has fallen heir to an estate of $300,000 in Ireland. The property descends to him from his kinsman, the late Dr. Hourne. Mr. O'Connor will go to Ireland in the near future to claim his inheritance. He owns one of the finest farms in Posey county, Ind.
